*Wearing Masks on Busses! It is extremely important that your child continue to wear their mask for the duration of the bus ride. We want to be sure everyone is safe.

Students who repeatedly disregard this may be expected to arrange for alternate transportation to and from school.

What's Going on at Lunch?

We continue to work on creating spaces and options for student lunch time activities. Thanks to those teachers who have been able to help with this.

We appreciate everyone's patience and understanding as we find safe ways to work within our space and the COVID-19 constraints.

Getting into the Holiday Spirit ~ you can find joy and generosity in schools!

House 1 & 2 Community Service

Coat Drive*: gently used or new coats for students and families.

Drop off in room 309 or 402

WE CARE

POD 2 Community Service Project

New Socks Drive- being donated (safely) to members of our Quesnel community.

Students in Pod 2 are asking our "QJS family" to bring in donations of new socks for people in need throughout our community. The donation box will be located in the office for drop off or you may leave donations with anyone from POD 2.

Collection will take place starting Monday December 7 until the Christmas break. Thank you for giving and Happy Holidays!

Last chance to take our 6 question survey and help us improve.

Thanks for taking the time; over 100 people have already spoken and your feedback is helping us with our planning.

Follow the link and email us your feedback qjs@sd28.bc.ca
