

This Week at QJS June 9, 2023

Where we Live, Laugh and Learn the way of our Nations with Responsibility, Respect, Cooperation, and Kindness

"Year's end is neither an end nor a beginning but a going on, with all the wisdom that experience can instill in us."

Hal Borland

This is the last week of regular classes for the year. *see the final 2-week plan below

At this time, we would like to thank all students and families for their patience and cooperation as we have successfully worked together to run a school in a construction zone. We are thrilled to say that we are almost done and that fall start up should be “construction free”.

JUNE FINAL WEEKS AT QJS

Many people are already planning for the end of the year. POD activities and learning continue to take place regularly until Friday, June 16th. After that things look a little different. Here is an outline and more information will follow describing in detail.

Out of School Learning Experiences, Place Based Learning and Field Trips

Valuable learning takes place in many formats. With the end of the school year fast approaching teachers work to organize dynamic and celebratory experiences for learning to continue.

Consult with your POD teachers regarding details for these out of school activities. Students must have the completed permissions to allow them to participate and also must meet the measure of trust necessary to leave campus.

This is also the time of year it is critical to demonstrate your learning, as final assessments are taking place in various formats. Attendance and a focus on learning is essential to finish the year in a strong, positive way.

Expected Behaviours For Students:

Schools have a responsibility to work with students and families to create safe, caring learning environments. Therefore, students are expected to know and follow the behaviours outlined in the District #28 and QJS Codes of Conduct. QJS PAC Student Cell Phone Survey

Take our QJS PAC Cell Phone Survey and share your thoughts:
Please complete the following survey by clicking the link below.

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/QGGHQ6Z>

While there are potential instructional benefits of using cell phones in schools and classrooms, there is also research revealing that improper use can negatively impact student behaviour, learning, and well-being.

The purpose of this survey is to learn more about the use of student personal cell phones in our school and how to best support students with establishing healthy habits and choices surrounding technology usage in their school setting.

We would love to hear from you. Please feel free to send additional comments, concerns or suggestions to pacatqjs@gmail.com.

Community Update:

Maple Park Mall had recently been purchased by a local businessman. They are working hard to refurbish and get it ready for new businesses. We look forward to seeing this local business thrive.

Vandalism has been an expensive problem recently at Maple Park Mall. Individuals trespassing or vandalizing on this property will be referred to RCMP. We expect that all QJS students are respectful of people and properties in our community.

Got Questions or Concerns?

We always want to know and try to help resolve issues. Our most effective resolutions come from working together with those directly involved with the concern.

At QJS we work as a team to support your children.

Please let us know if your child is having difficulties with other students at school, so that we can help support them. They can also report using the anonymous link below. Each report is followed up by the school identified.

Upcoming Online Workshops for Educators Working with Indigenous Students

Looking to learn more about Indigenous Ways of Knowing when it comes to physical activity and physical literacy? Join us for one, two or all three of these free Zoom workshops through May and June – choose the date for each workshop that works best for you!

An Indigenous Approach to Getting Started with Physical Literacy Workshop

Brings local Indigenous storytelling that honours the First Peoples' Principles of Learning to basic physical literacy theory. 90 minutes
Tuesday May 16th, 12:00-1:30 p.m. PST
Tuesday May 23rd, 3:00-4:30 p.m. PST
Monday June 5th, 12:00-1:30 p.m. PST
Friday June 9th, 3:00-4:30 p.m. PST

Holistic Model for Educators

Based on the medicine wheel's core values and teachings, learn to further the physical literacy of Indigenous learners by teaching beyond the physical to the emotional/intellectual, cultural and spiritual. 90 minutes.
Thursday June 1st, 3:00-4:30 p.m. PST
Tuesday June 6th, 3:00-4:30 p.m. PST

Motivation Strategies for Indigenous Learners

This new workshop works towards an understanding of what physical literacy is, how building confidence and competence increases motivation for physical activity, and how educators can build supports for students' motivation. We look at challenges and barriers, consider ways to support students where they are at, understand their needs in a holistic manner, and discuss strategies to meet those needs. 2 hours.
Thursday May 18th, 3:00-5:00 p.m. PST
Friday May 26th, 12:00-2:00 p.m. PST
Thursday June 8th, 12:00-2:00 p.m. PST
