We Wore Red To Support on May 5

Ms. Green made her skirt and mask to honour the many missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls. Her sister made the beautiful pendant she wore today.

We hope each of you can take a moment to think of those who have lost members of their family.

WEAR RED TO SUPPORT May 5th as a National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Native Women and Girls.

A congressional resolution to designate May 5th as a National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Native Women and Girls has been introduced. Nearly 200 Tribal, State, and National organizations supported this resolution. Will you?

Ideas on how to participate and raise awareness on Friday, May 5th:

- ✓ Wear RED on May 5th and post a photo on social media with the hashtag #NationalDayofAwareness #MMNWG #MMIWNWRC
- ✓ Host a community event in your community on May 5th
- ✓ Host a prayer circle or candlelight vigil on May 5th
- ✓ Post a list of names of sisters missing or murdered from your community
- ✓ Create a living memorial
- ✓ Register at www.niwrc.org to participate in the National Indigenous Women's Resource Center webinar: Honoring Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women
